

Useful Websites

The main publishing companies have free access to all their online textbooks:

www.cjfallon.ie

www.edcolearning.ie

www.gillexplore.ie

www.folensonline.ie (for school Roll Number enter Prim20)

Further educational websites:

<https://ncse.ie/online-resources-for-parents> (The National Council for Special Education has some support materials for parents of pupils with Special Educational Needs)

www.scoilnet.ie (suitable for all ages and all areas of the curriculum)

www.oxfordowl.co.uk (ebooks for 3-11 year olds)

www.borrowbox.com (online library)

www.twinkl.ie (suitable for all ages and all areas of the curriculum)

<https://www.scoilnet.ie/scoilnet-services/world-book/> (free access to World Book Online)

<http://www.newsmagmedia.ie> (Free access to the Primary Planet magazine for fifth and sixth class and Flash for third and fourth class – a new edition will issue on 1st April) www.topmarks.co.uk (Maths and English activities for all ages)

www.khanacademy.org (Maths activities)

www.irishhomework.ie (free Irish lessons)

www.cula4.com (Irish TV for children)

www.seideansi.ie (access to the Irish programme for Gaeltacht schools and Gaelscoileanna) www.duolingo.com (website for learning Irish) www.gonoodle.com (guided exercise/dance routines and mindfulness exercises)

www.iamanartist.ie (art ideas and videos) www.deepspacesparkle.com (art ideas and daily drawing tutorials on their Facebook page) www.dkfindout.com (A good website for research and project work)

<https://scratch.mit.edu/> (coding for children)

www.askaboutireland.ie (online resource focussing on Ireland and our national culture)